SUNY Student Assembly President Marc Cohen's Statement on the Women's Marches

January 20, 2017 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Tyler McNeil, tyler.mcneil@sunysa.org

“Many SUNY students from across the system are making their voices heard by participating in women's rights marches on Saturday in New York, Washington, D.C., and around the country. We applaud their advocacy and leadership, and encourage everyone to join together in the spirit of unity, equality, and justice.”

About the SUNY Student Assembly

The Student Assembly of the State University of New York (SUNY SA) is the recognized student government organization representing the nearly 600,000 students of the State University of New York. Comprised of student leaders elected by their peers from across SUNY's 64 campuses, SUNY SA is committed to empowering students throughout the state, and ensuring the representation of its members on the state and national level, as well as throughout the SUNY system.
