Statement by SUNY Student Assembly President and Trustee Marc J. Cohen

For Immediate Release: September 23, 2016

Contact: Nicholas Simons, Nicholas.Simons@sunysa.org

“The news of charges being filed against SUNY Polytechnic Institute President Alain Kaloyeros is of great disappointment to the students of the SUNY system. SUNY is defined by academic excellence and great student experiences - not corruption. The Student Assembly is committed to ensuring that our students receive the best education possible, under the best leadership available. We will work actively with Chancellor Zimpher and Chairman McCall to ensure that the students attending SUNY Polytechnic are not adversely affected by any of the events that ensue.”

About the Student Assembly of the State University of New York

The Student Assembly of the State University of New York (SUNY SA) is the recognized student government organization representing the nearly 600,000 students of the State University of New York. Comprised of student leaders elected by their peers from across SUNY’s 64 campuses, SUNY SA is committed to empowering students throughout the state, and ensuring the representation of its members on the state and national level, as well as throughout the SUNY system.
